Tufts Award Winners

Winners this year of the Tufts Loyalty Awards are Johnsie Kanoy and Rudolph Reaves. Both are members of the senior class.

This award, a memorial, is presented each year by the family of the late Leonard Tufts to the boy and girl who, in the opinion of the faculty, have been most loyal to their school and its standards.

Johnsie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kanoy of West End, has been an outstanding and conscientious student during her entire school career. Teachers and students admire her for her dependability and high standards. She is a member of the Beta Club, serving this year as secretary. She has taken an active part in F.H.A. work; and she is treasurer of her class.

Rudolph is the son of Mrs. Carline Reaves of Pinehurst. He entered our school from West End in the tenth grade and has made an enviable place for himself. His happy disposition and good manners have made him popular with everyone. He spared no effort when he could help in any school undertaking.

Always interested in sports, Rudolph was a valuable player on both basketball and football teams. As a result of his hard work, he did well in his studies. He has been, at all times, a person our school can be proud of.

Senior Gift

Each year the senior class tries to leave some useful and appropriate gift to the high school as a token of their appreciation. This year the gift is a glass-enclosed bulletin board to be placed outside the main office in the high school building. This will be a convenient place to display pictures and other things of interest.

In addition, funds will be left to provide a neatly-lettered sign-board to be placed on the street. This will give the name and location of our school.

Commencement Marshals

Chief marshal for the 1956 commencement exercises is Joyce Edmonds of the Junior Class. Assisting her are Arline Hussey and Wayne Hardy of the Junior Class; Patty Creath and Alice Garrison from the Sophomore Class; and Bebe Barrett and Allison Gramelsbach from the Freshman Class.

These marshals are chosen on the basis of the work done during the past year.

Dedication

To Mr. Joseph Jenkins, this issue of the Sandspur is proudly dedicated. Since coming to Pinehurst four years ago, Mr. Jenkins has won the respect and admiration of all who know him. He has set us an example of friendliness and hard work which we might well follow. As Senior Class Adviser, he has been an understanding friend.

Good Citizens

Each year the American Legion gives awards for good citizenship to a boy and girl in high school. These awards go this year to Maggie McKenzie, a senior, and to Donnie Garner, a junior.

Maggie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. McKenzie, West End, N. C., has spent the entire twelve years of her school life in Pinehurst School. She has a wonderful disposition and high standards of conduct, and, as we learned not long ago, she has ability as an actress.

Donnie Garner, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garner of Pinehurst, has done excellent work in school. He is a member of the Beta Club and he is active in all school affairs. Donnie has a sense of humor that, added to his other good qualities, makes him a favorite of everyone. He is called on for many things because of his dependability.

Commencement Speakers

DR. HAROLD DUDLEY

Dr. Harold Dudley, General Secretary of the Synod of North Carolina, will preach the commencement sermon to the graduating class of Pinehurst High School on Sunday evening, May 27, at eight o'clock in the Pinehurst School Auditorium.

Dr. Dudley, a Virginian, attended Hampden-Sydney College, Union Theological Seminary, and Southwestern College, Memphis, Tennessee. He has held pastorates in Lynchburg, Va., Birmingham, Ala., and Wilson, N.C.

At all times interested in young people, Dr. Dudley has directed the recreation program in young peoples' camps and conferences. He has served the North Carolina Council of Churches as Chairman of the Recreation Commission.

At present he is editor of "The Presbyterian News", official paper of the Synod.

DR. COOK

Dr. Dennis H. Cook, a native North Carolinian, will preach the 1956 commencement sermon. Dr. Cook is President of High Point College, High Point, N.C. He holds the B.A. and M. Ed. degrees from Duke University and Ph.D. degree from Peabody College.

Dr. Cook's experience in educational work includes several years in high school work, two years as Superintendent of the Masonic Orphanage Schools at Oxford, N. C., sixteen years in the Educational Department at Peabody College, thirteen months as President of Eastern Carolina Teachers' College, and two years as head of the Department of Education and Director of Summer School at Woman's College, University of North Carolina.

In addition to this work, Dr. Cook is the author or co-author of many articles and several books on education.

MEMORIES

As the end of school approaches,

We realize our year is ending

As seniors of Pinehurst High.

We shall recall all the things
we have done here,

And think of the friends we have made.

When other memories have all vanished,

These memories will never fade.

As graduation sends us separate ways,

And we leave our small school
world,

There will be new decisions and friends to make,

New experiences for each boy and girl.

Alma Mater

On the city's eastern border
Reared against the sky
Proudly stands our Alma
Mater

As the years go by.

Forward ever be our watchword!

Conquer and prevail!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Pinehurst High, all hail!

Cherished by our sons and daughters,

Mem'ries sweet shall throng,
Gathered 'round our Alma

Mater

As we sing the song

Good luck to a real sweet girl.

Seniors and Juniors Visit Charleston

On Thursday morning, April 12, a group of excited boys and girls left Pinehurst in the big maroon and gold bus for the long-awaited trip to Charleston. It was a happy group, all dressed in their latest spring finery and feeling very important as they said farewell to underclassmen, teachers, and parents, who had come to see them off.

After a few hours' riding through the beautiful level section of the Carolinas, we came to a stop in Florence, S.C. Here the students bought refreshments and stretched their tired limbs. Soon we were on our way again — the next stop being the Cypress Gardens. Here, we enjoyed a picnic lunch after which we went on a tour of the Gardens. The moss, bright-colored azaleas, and the still dark water made a picture we'll never forget.

Finally we arrived in the beautiful and historic old Charleston. We were assigned to our rooms in the John C. Calhoun Motel, a very comfortable and attractive place. After a short relaxing period, we went to Henry's for a wonderful meal of seafood and chicken. After dinner all of us went to the old Dock Theater, where we saw an entertaining play, Fifth Season, a comedy.

On Friday morning a boat trip was made to Fort Sumter. There we were met by a guide and taken on a tour around the Fort. After our pictures were taken on Friday afternoon, we went on a tour of the city. We saw many attractive and interesting places. We were then free to spend the evening as we wished. Most of us went to see a movie.

Saturday morning the group boarded the bus and crossed the Cooper River Bridge to visit the Isle of Palms. Everyone enjoyed this trip.

After about three hours of shopping, we again put our bags on the bus and soon were settled for the long ride home. About 9:45 p.m. a bunch of tired students arrived in Pinehurst, where we were met by our parents and friends.

The juniors and seniors were accompanied on the trip by Miss Burns, Mr. Jenkins, Mr. Cannon, and Mr. Bowles. All arrangements had been carefully made beforehand by Mr. Cannon, and everything went off smoothly, just as he had planned. To Mr. Bowles we owe our appreciation for his careful driving and skillful handling of the bus.

Class History

As we turn back the pages of our diary, we find a group of twenty-three students eagerly waiting to enter the freshman year in high school. This was a new experience for us, but with the aid and advice of Miss Morris, our homeroom teacher, we got off to a good start. The boys were talkative enough that year and teased the girls for being shy. Miss Morris, however, was very understanding and patient with us.

Continuing in our diary to the sophomore year, we find Mr. Bowles was our homeroom teacher. By this time we had become accustomed to high school life and gave more time to school activities. The main event of the year was the trip to Raleigh with the freshman class to see the Ice-capades. It was during this year that many of our classmates dropped out.

Then, turning to the junior year, we see a class of thirteen at the first of the year, but before the year ended we were only eleven! With our class so small, we — and especially Mrs. Whitesell — had to work very hard at the concession stand and the Hallowe'en Carnival to raise funds for the junior-senior trip to Washington. The trip, a high light of the year, was thrilling and enjoyed by everyone who went. However, we'll never forget the blisters we had from so much walking. It was during this year that all of us wrote speeches on the United Nations in our U.S. History class.

Finally, in the last pages of our diary, we come to that long-awaited year when we became "dignified seniors." We began the year as a class of twelve, with Mr. Jenkins our homeroom teacher. We were happy to have John Weatherly from Mount Olive join us later in the year. With Miss Morris' help, we struggled through Shakespeare's "The Merchant of Venice" and "Macbeth." After Miss Morris resigned in February, Miss Banks took her place, and under her guidance we learned to diagram sentences and became familiar with many great poets.

One of the outstanding events of this year was the trip to Charleston, S.C. After a few very stormy days, the weatherman smiled on us and we had beautiful weather for our trip. After returning from the trip, we really had to settle down and get to work on the senior play, "June Fever." Mr. Penuel directed the play, which, of course, gave us plenty of worry and headaches. But we had fun, and the play was a success.

Now, as graduation rapidly approaches and we close the pages of our diary, we remember all the happy times we have had at Pinehurst High. These are memories that will be precious always to the graduating class of 1956.

Senior Will

We, the graduating(?) class of Pinehurst High, being of sound but uncertain minds, do hereby bequeath the following articles to the future seniors of Pinehurst High:

First: To the rising seniors we leave the high school building, faculty members, and all the wonderful opportunities they afford.

Second: To Mr. and Mrs. Cannon we leave our sincere appreciation for the interest they have shown in us and for the good advice they have given us. We appreciate, too, Mrs. Cannon's patience with us when we interrupted her at her work.

Third: To the faculty we leave our thanks for all they have done toward helping us obtain an education and to see the value of an education.

Fourth: To the juniors we leave all the happy moments and good times we had in our senior year.

Fifth: To Mr. Bowles we leave our football, basketball, and baseball uniforms in the hope that they will fit next year's winning team.

Sixth: To the seniors of '57 we leave the following articles:

1. Catherine Vest and Johnsie Kanoy leave to Fred Taylor and Carl Garrison their ability to make good grades.

2. Bobby Willard leaves his glib tongue and boisterous behavior to John McKenzie.

3. Rudolph Reaves leaves his romantic life to Nettie Jane Frye.

4. Gary Wathen leaves his happy disposition to Joe Frye.

5. Mole Barrett leaves his height to Ralph Gilleland for the '56-'57 basketball season.

6. Marvin Frye leaves to Robert Garrison his musical ability.

7. John Weatherly leaves his diligence to Fred Taylor with the hope that he will find it useful.

8. Carol McKenzie leaves to Joan McDonald all her pretty clothes.

9. Louise Spangler leaves her pleasing smile and curly locks to Barbara Yonker.

10. Johnsie Kanoy leaves her "babyish ways" to Betty Dupree.

11. Catherine Vest leaves her basketball suit to Faye McKenzie.

12. Maggie McKenzie leaves her ability as an actress to Arlene Hussey.

13. Rumell Gordon wills her tight skirts to Juanita Robertson.

14. Stanley Black leaves his ability to sleep through English and economics classes to Carl Garrison.

15. We leave our thanks to Miss Sherrill for the help she gave us during library periods.

16. The "Senior Smoking Club": Buckshot, John, Bobby, Marvin, and Gary, leave to Fred, Joe, and Carl their hopes to have "smoking privileges" at school next year.

Class Prophecy

Perhaps you would like to take a peep at what our class will be doing ten years from now. Let's get a seat on this sightseeing helicopter, and we may soon find out by dropping in here and there.

First, let's glance at the race tracks and see if we can locate Gary Wathen. Yes, there he is and he seems to be doing well with his horses. Several have been winners this year.

Who are those girls in white going across the street to the drugstore? They are Maggie McKenzie and Rumell Gordon, and at present, they are nurses at Moore County Hospital. Their calm quiet manner makes them popular with their patients just as it did with friends in high school.

And whose drugstore is this? Why, John Weatherly owns it and is quite successful with it. He is a wonderful pharmacist.

Going by is a handsome boy in a paratrooper's uniform. That's Stanley Black — just home from two years in foreign service.

Another of Uncle Sam's boys is at home too. Rudolph Reaves. All his friends are glad to have him home again. They enjoy his accounts of his thrilling adventures as a pilot.

Louise Spangler, the senior with long curly locks, has a beauty parlor in Pinehurst and is making a success of it.

After many ups and downs,

Marvin Frye finally made a hit and now he and his trio are one of the most popular features on television. They sing popular songs and spirituals.

Bobby Willard, after trying his luck in many places, has returned to Pinehurst High and is the coach there. He has a good team and they haven't lost a game this year.

Bobby Barrett still likes to drive fast. He has found the Daytona Beach Speedway the best place for that, and now he has his little blue Ford entered for the next race. He will probably win, too.

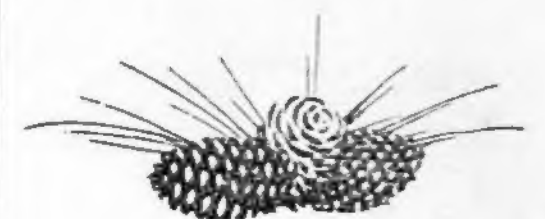

Carol McKenzie is the head bookkeeper at the Pinehurst General Office. Her training at Pinehurst High gave her a good start.

Catherine Vest, after working as a secretary for several years, is now happily married and living in Carthage.

We found Johnsie Kanoy teaching typing and shorthand in Southern Pines High School. She is doing a good job there.

Considering everything, our class has done right well. They seem to be doing their part in making the world a better and happier place.

Award Winners at Banquet

erine Vest, voted "most valuable player of girls' team; School Superintendent, L. S. Cannon; Bobby Willard, boys' "most valuable", and President Jim Gilbert of the Lions' Club.

Lions Entertain

Basketball Teams

The Pinehurst Lions Club entertained members of the local basketball teams in the school cafeteria on Wednesday evening, May 12. More than 100 students, parents, Lions, and guests attended this enjoyable affair at which Coach Jim Tatum of the University of North Carolina was the speaker.

Barbara Hunt was awarded the Sportsmanship Trophy for the girls and Robert Garrison for the boys, Coach James Bowles making the presentation. President James Gilbert awarded the D. H. Whitesell Trophy for the most valuable player on the team to Catherine Vest of the girls' team and to Bobby Willard of the boys' team. Mr. Bowles also presented letters won by the players of both teams.

TO VISIT CHICAGO

Barbara Adcox, who lives with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Smith, was recently elected president of the Moore County Chapter of the Future Home Makers of America.

At the March meeting of this organization, the club voted to sponsor Barbara as a representative to the National F.H.A. Convention in Chicago in July.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK OBSERVED

The Pinehurst School's exercises in observance of American Education Week on Tuesday night, November 8, attracted 350 persons. A play, "The American Way," was presented, directed by Mr. Penuel. Miss Gladys Stutts was in charge of the music.

SCHOOL BEGINS WITH LARGE ENROLLMENT

During the first ten days of school 418 students were enrolled in the Pinehurst School. At the end of the year the number had increased to 448. The High School numbers 101.

PINEHURST SCHOOL GETS "A" FROM HEALTH BOARD

The Pinehurst Schools, when checked by Mr. E. F. Dunn, Sanitarian of the North Carolina Board of Health, received a rating of 95. The school cafeteria also received an "A" rating.

The schools were checked on the following items: drinking fountains, sewage and waste disposal, toilet rooms, handwashing facilities, floors, walls, and ceilings, storage places, lighting, ventilation, dressing rooms and showers.

BETA CLUB INITIATES

At an impressive chapel service on Friday, October 21, the Pinehurst Beta Club received eight new members. This group, from the junior class, was the largest yet to enter the Beta Club at one time.

The new members were Wayne Hardy, Joan McDonald, Barbara Adcox, Arlene Hussey, Clara Garrison, Joyce Edmonds, Donnie Garner, and Robert Garrison. Catherine Vest, president of the Club, presided. Rumel Gordon conducted the devotional, and Johnsie Kanoy, secretary, presented certificates to the new members.
